For families/households with more than 8 persons, add $5,500 for each additional person.
Based on Revised Federal Poverty Income Guidelines published January 17, 2025.

The Department of Health and Human Services' definition of "family" is: "All persons related by blood, marriage, or adoption who reside together (unrelated individuals, even in the same house, would be considered separate families); and defines "income" as "total annual cash receipts before taxes from all sources" (including salaries, public assistance/unemployment/retirement payments, Social Security, child support, etc., but excluding gifts, receipts from sale of property, or non-cash benefits such as Medicaid, food stamps, public housing, etc.). (V1-Final-1-19-2023)

*Flat rate fees may not apply for all discount services.
Other services may be based on a discount percent.
